1. I am a Sales Representative (Job Title) of International Currency Technologies Corp. (ICT) a company in Taiwan.
2. I have been in ICT's employment for 2 years. My responsibilities include handling disputes and lawsuits involving ICT. I have the oversight authority for ICT's intake of documents, such as court notices, addressed to ICT.
3. On May 4, 2005, I saw a package delivered by a letter carrier to ICT. The envelope of the package shows the name of the sender: the law firm of Fish & Richardson, and it was sent privately via registered mail from the United States to Taiwan.
4. The envelope was addressed to ICT at its Taiwanese address.
5. The package contained some documents in English and there was no copy of Chinese translation accompanying the English documents. Later, ICT's attorneys advised that the documents were a "summons" and a civil complaint against ICT filed with a court in the U.S.A.
